

Newsletter - June 2021

Dear international,

Join us in welcoming the month of June! The moment we've all been waiting for is finally here: the sun is coming out and the country is gradually reopening. In this newsletter you'll find a link to the announced relaxations and activities to enjoy the summer responsibly. Discover the soon to be reopened cultural highlights of Utrecht Region, participate in activities with new friends with the Activitree app, and help baking pancakes for elderly.

The second week of June is the stage of the Utrecht Region Work Event. In this online event with free webinars and networking opportunities, you'll learn everything you need to know about working, volunteering, and starting your own business in Utrecht Region. Read on for more information.

And as always: if you have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out to us.

Best wishes,

The International Welcome Centre Utrecht Region team

Reopening of cultural venues

The Dutch government has announced that from Saturday 5 June, some COVID-19 measures will be relaxed. Among other things, restrictions on group sizes are easing and recreational facilities are once again allowed to open their doors. This means we can explore Utrecht Region's fantastic variety of museums, historic buildings and parks again! Check out the region's highlights and enjoy.
